2006 HAVA EXPENDITURES
FUND 101

2007 MAR 19 AM 10: 27

Election Official Training - $41,900.00

In furtherance of the goals of HAVA, New Jersey instituted a formal education program for county elections officials as they have the primary responsibility for conducting elections in the state. The office of the Attorney General collaborated with the Center for Government Services of the Edward Bloustein Graduate School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers University, the State University of New Jersey to develop the curriculum. In 2005, the first course, entitled Basic Election Administration, was attended by approximately 100 election officials and administrators. It was offered in three locations: Hammonton, New Brunswick and Newark.

Voter Education and Outreach - $43,706.60

One of the main goals of HAVA is to encourage voter participation. The New Jersey "Be Powerful, Be Heard" Voter Outreach and Education Initiative was created to inform New Jersey citizens of HAVA-related electoral procedures and to emphasize the importance of registering and voting. Beginning in 2004 and continuing through 2005, the Office of the Attorney General produced a number of public service announcements that were broadcast on television and radio as well as the Internet. These announcements informed the public of upcoming elections and related-electoral deadlines and at all times were non-partisan.

The NJ Voter Outreach Plan is detailed in Section III of the New Jersey State HAVA Plan. This Section details the manner in which New Jersey planned to conduct voter outreach in furtherance of HAVA mandates. It specifically mentioned, in part, the use of statewide public service announcements through various media forums as well as educational outreach programs for students and citizens with limited English proficiency. The 2005 programs included the following.

On June 17, 2005, an ex-felon voting rights panel discussion was held at the College of New Jersey to educate the public on the restoration of rights for ex-felons.

On August 31, 2005 a "Be Powerful, Be Heard" event was held at an adult day care facility in Northfield, New Jersey, which is located in Atlantic County. A number of senior citizens participated. There was a discussion of HAVA voting procedures and a hands-on demonstration of the new HAVA-compliant voting system that the County had recently purchased.

On September 30, 2005, the State held the "The Power of the Vote" Spoken Word Competition in Trenton, New Jersey. Approximately 4,000 students from across New Jersey participated in the event. The event was also broadcast on the Internet. The event included a discussion of HAVA voting procedures and voter registration.

Finally, on October 21, 2005, the State held the "Be Powerful, Be Heard" Latino Voter Educational Outreach Event at Barringer High School in Newark, NJ. Over 1,000 high school students participated in this event.
